

Official Statement of México Republicano

Mexico City, August 20th, 2025.

México Republicano, in line with its commitment to defending the fundamental values of our nation and the higher interest of the Mexican State, makes a respectful yet firm call to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to revoke the appointment of Mr. Genaro Lozano as Ambassador of Mexico to Italy.

Our position is based on three essential points:

1. Ethical and moral incompatibility.

Mr. Lozano himself has, on several occasions, made ambiguous and condescending remarks regarding issues related to pedophilia, which is unacceptable for someone tasked with representing the Mexican State before a sister nation and the international community. No diplomatic representative can relativize the defense of childhood or raise doubts about his commitment to the protection of minors.

2. Ideological radicalism.

Mr. Lozano, a well-known commentator and intellectual militant of a political faction, has the right to freedom of expression. However, his extreme positions and confrontational rhetoric make him unviable as the representative of a diverse and plural nation of over one hundred million believers, whose cultural and spiritual tradition demands balance, respect, and sobriety in the diplomatic sphere.

3. Damage to Mexico's international image.

An appointment of this nature weakens the credibility of our foreign policy. Italy and the Vatican constitute a strategic front for Mexico's cultural, economic, and spiritual projection in Europe. Sending an ambassador with a record of controversial and divisive statements undermines the dialogue and respect that our country deserves.

In light of the above, México Republicano urges the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to reconsider and revoke this appointment, in order to preserve Mexico's diplomatic prestige, ensure dignified representation of our national values, and prevent factional interests from prevailing over the responsibility of the State.

Mexico needs diplomats with statesmanship, not ideological propagandists.

Freedom. Greatness. Strength.
