

Statement from México Republicano

México City, august 22th, 2025.

México Republicano expresses its deep concern over the recent remarks made by Senator Lily Téllez on Fox News. While such statements may contain partially true elements in general terms, their presentation reflects a marked lack of understanding regarding the logic of U.S. society and the mechanisms of binational dialogue.

As a public representative, it is essential that her positions contribute to building substantive solutions, rather than generating narratives that—due to their political and media-driven nature—create unnecessary risks for national stability.

Issues of security, cooperation, and governance demand responsibility, seriousness, and a thorough understanding of international collaboration processes. These challenges cannot be addressed with sensationalist rhetoric or media noise, but through solid, institutional, and long-term instruments that strengthen both the relationship with the United States and our country's ability to face the current governance crisis.

México Republicano reiterates that binational dialogue must take place in responsible spaces of strategic reflection, aimed at consolidating bilateral cooperation and establishing firm foundations for hemispheric stability.

Sincerely,

Freedom. Greatness. Strenght.
