

Statement from México Republicano

Mexico City, October 27, 2025

México Republicano congratulates President Javier Milei and the Argentine people on the victory of freedom over Kirchnerism

México Republicano extends its sincere congratulations to President Javier Milei and the La Libertad Avanza movement for their democratic reaffirmation in Argentina, representing a historic triumph of freedom, individual responsibility, and free markets over decades of Kirchnerist populism and interventionism.

The success of the reform agenda and the consolidation of a national project based on the principles of economic freedom, respect for private property, and institutional strengthening serve as an inspiration to all Latin American nations seeking to break away from the authoritarian, clientelist, and corrupt models that have hindered the development of our continent.

México Republicano also recognizes President Milei's strategic vision in strengthening ties with President Donald J. Trump, reflecting a shared commitment to national sovereignty, the defense of order, the promotion of entrepreneurship, and a firm rejection of 21st-century socialism.

Argentina's rebirth under Milei's leadership, in harmony with a new era of hemispheric cooperation inspired by President Trump's leadership, confirms that the Americas are once again choosing the path of freedom.

México Republicano reaffirms its commitment to those same values and extends its fraternal hand to the Argentine people in this new chapter of hope, growth, and dignity.

Long live freedom! Long live a free Argentina! Long live a free America!

Sincerely,
Freedom. Greatness. Strength.
